

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN.

WASHINGTON, D. C., DECEMBER 13, 1880.

MARY'S SKATES.

BY JO. RICKY.
Mary had some little skates,
And with them went to slide;
She slipped, and therefore had a fall,
But did her pride.

Her heels flew up, her head went down,
And struck upon the ice,
Displaying both her striped hose,
Which surely was not nice.

She jumped up quickly on her feet,
And said she did not care;
But on the heel a card was seen,
Marked "Fifteen cents a pair."

FUN AND FACT.

A tug-boat at Wilmington, Del., has for its name Deo Volente.

The Delaware Boot Sugar Company will use 500 boxes of soap.

New York girls are initiating Belmont in everything.—New York Commercial, etc.—Boston Post.

Kingsley is apparently making quite as much progress with his motor as Edison is with his electrical train.

A Hawkhill (Georgia) hen laid an egg weighing twice its own weight.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The Pacific Mills in Lawrence, Massachusetts, have now more than three in the sixty-seven cotton factories of South Carolina.

Forty-nine Guernseys were sold in Philadelphia, on Thursday, for $30.40, an average of $417.

They were imported last summer from the Channel Islands.

The first number of "The Magazine for Englishmen," just issued with the title-page, "London, New & Co., London, December 1, Fifteen thousand copies sold; retail price one shilling."

"I would be bald-headed" said he. "When a burlesque troupe comes to town my wife sends me as a cat's whisker a mouse, and every man I meet asks if I liked the performance. It did not use to be so."

The question now agitating a colored congregation in North Carolina is, "Who nursed Eve at the birth of Cain?" The pastor is a modest and manly man, who has the care of the most of the time with difficult evangelical problems.

At the Madison Avenue Congregational Church in New York, the organist, a young man, succeeded in getting the management of marine bands, and a discussion of causes and prevention of deterioration and explosions.

Sketches of THE WOMEN OF CHRISTENDOM, by Mrs. J. N. F. 92 New York Avenue, Washington, D. C., are to be published in "The World," New York, Dodd, Mead & Co., Washington, D. C.

WANTED—A PLACE IN A SMALL FAMILY.

Call at 13 St street northwest.

A GENTLEMAN, AGE FIFTY, AND TOWERING IN STATURE, is wanted, and it is necessary to him to be a member of Congress or in any literary capacity for a number of years; unexceptionable references. Address JOHN ROBERTSON, office.

It is well worthy of publication in a cheaper form, and in a style which would insure it a wider circulation, than the subjects are elicited from the official position of the distinguished author, the subject is treated with special reference to the construction of marine boilers, a large part of the work is devoted to the discussion of general principles, and the chapters on construction, trial and inspection, are particularly valuable to engineers and manufacturers.

These chapters comprise one-fourth of the contents, and the other subjects are elicited from a party scientific basis, they are not obscured by the unnecessary introduction of familiar topics.

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The Hawkhill (Georgia) hen laid an egg weighing twice its own weight.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.

The windows of most of the dealers in Christmas goods are something like the "windows of the sun."

A dealer in cheap clothing says if one of his garments can be sent through the post-office as second-class mail.